SUBJECT: GAMBIT

1. Reference: L 003-1017.
2. GAMBIT's husband, as anticipated by us, was released from the PW internment camp. He was given his discharge papers, and was promptly arrested again. At present, GAMBIT believes, he is being held as a "security threat" in the civilian internment camp at Ludwigsburg in Wuerttemberg, which is a camp run by the Germans under American supervision.
3. Aware of the Russian interest in former German officers, GAMBIT's husband has no intention of coming into the Russian Zone, if and when he is released from the internment center. Some time ago he changed his records to indicate that his permanent home is in Herford (British Zone), where his brother is working as an interpreter in the English Headquarters.
4. In view of the above developments, there is no change in GAMBIT's situation here, nor in her willingness to work with us in Berlin.
